LAVA IS MOVING AT VESUVIUS.

Is Now Feared City of Naples Is in Serious Danger.

LOSS OF PROPERTY $8,000,000

At Least 2,000 Are Said to Have Been Lost—Scenes of the Devastation and Work of Rescue Beyond Description—Hundreds of Wounded Being Cared for in the Hospitals.

Special to The Courier

Naples, April 11.—The volcano of Mount Vesuvius which has already cast hundreds of lives, driven thousands from their homes and wrought untold havoc and desolation, is again in full flame after a long repose. The scene of the inhabitants in the entire region is consequently very grotto. The temporary hill vestas aroused hope that the worst was past. This is shattered and the physical and mental gloom has returned. Today showers of ashes are falling more densely than ever and over a widely extended area. An additional report, however, indicates that the number of casualties is steadily increasing.

It is estimated that 2,000 lives have been lost. A direct result of the eruption is that nearly 800 have been injured and over 2,000 add to the number. Damage to property already destroyed is estimated at fully $8,000,000. Rescues works are being pushed but are being delayed by almost insurmountable obstacles. Terrible sights and experiences are reported by rescue men and soldiers. Even their tales fall flat short of depicting the reality. The lava is again on the move in all directions down the sides of Vesuvius and is now believed the city of Naples is in serious danger.

This morning due to Spanish state that fifty houses and three churches there collapsed. The ancient town hill is thus lost with destruction. In Otranto and other towns and villages of this vicinity it is suspended because depth of the cinders and ash which continue without cessation to fall. Many houses are falling today under the weight of accumulated debris as the mud houses collapse. Clouds of dust and smoke alight. There is a standstill because of the prevailing gloom in the city. Most of the shops are closed.

A tremendous volume of lava is now belching forth from Vesuvius toward the center of the peninsula. It is greatly more dangerous than the previous deluge of ashes and stones. Terrible sheets of earthquake fall out to add to the horror. Fifty shiploads of refugees from points along the Vesuvius front arrived in Naples this morning. All public buildings in the city have been ordered closed to avoid danger from collapsing roofs.

HAD A NARROW ESCAPE.

Derry Brackman on "Pinkeye" Came Within an Ace of Death

Scottsdale, Pa., April 11.—A brakeman on the Phoebe freight on the South West branch had a hairbreadth escape from death at 11 o'clock last night. One truck passed over him and a jumper came between the wheel. He was looking at a car which he was driving from the rear of the car between the two trucks, jumping between the two trucks, hitting them while his front truck of the car passed over him. The car was a foreign one, with a high back, being on the brakeman would have been dragged to death. A boy on the truck passed the brakeman in the rear and ran through the tunnel to the station. The next day was a Pennsylvania one with a low down before he left.

Chatty Letter from the Metropolis of Georges Township

Smithfield, April 11.—J. A. Clark, Richmond Va., J. P. Stewart, Wheeling, L. Beerbower, Pittsburgh, and J. E. Ferguson, Philadelphia, were registered at Black's Hotel yesterday.

John C. Martin of Old Frame was disposing of some maple molasses in town yesterday.

S. G. Rable, cashier on R. T. D. No. 6 has been ill for a few days. Exposure to miserable weather, they say, was subject to in March gave him a severe cold, from which he is slow to recover.

The School Board held a special meeting Monday night. The meeting was called to adjust a misunderstanding between one of the teachers and the Board about the janitor service. The Board passed a resolution at a meeting held July 17, 1905 before the opening of this school term, that each teacher should pay $1.00 a month to be deducted from their salary towards paying the janitor. This one of the trustees refused to pay on the ground that she did not contract to do so and had never been consulted in the matter. It appears that the Secretary had no objection to the other three teachers and thus showed contempt with the understanding that the deduction would be made out of their salaries but had not mentioned in this one. The contracts are printed in blue ink in the minute book. It is along with the others was filled out and signed by the Secretary and President, with the signatures of all the teachers, but the Board did not sign it at that time. Consider his position in November on account of being employed at a distance, so that he could not attend the meeting, he was not present at this meeting. The present Secretary was by resolution of the Board directed to draw an order on the Treasurer for the full amount of the claimants salary also a resolution provided to set aside the amount of the Justices fees $7.00 the amount of the Justices fees that she would have paid had she contracted with the Board.

Smithfield is destined to have still another that in private. The colored brackets are putting up a chaotic list for an order of the Two Reforms.

PRINCESS BEGAR

Delighted Good Audience at Colonial Last Evening

Paula Edwards has the distinction of giving a performance last evening that by unanimous opinion of the very few audience present was the most delightful and interesting entertainment given at the Colonial theatre this season by Minnie R. W. Singe.

Only the fact that this is Holy Week is responsible for the fact that a packed house did not greet Miss Edwards.

And it is saying good-bye to the Colonial by Manager Singe.

However, Singe was in excellent form two weeks ago and Miss Edwards last night was another.

Should she play a return engagement this season she is as well off as a vicinity house.

Press agent writes of Princess Begar are not exaggerated. In fact they do not tell the real delights of the play. The costumes are "magnificent" the stage setting with no detail left to be desired. Miss Edwards deserves to be perfect.

Princess Begar is a comedy among her talents greatly superior to "Waverly Wimpy" in which she excelled last season. With a wise and tunefulness that is refreshing.

Miss Edwards' wit is evident in the regulars to go first and then depend on their recommendation to attend when a return date is given. With few exceptions, this has been the case with higher class productions brought to the Colonial by Manager Singe.

Should she play a return engagement this season she is as well off as a vicinity house.

Press agent writes of Princess Begar are not exaggerated. In fact they do not tell the real delights of the play. The costumes are "magnificent" the stage setting with no detail left to be desired. Miss Edwards deserves to be perfect.

Princess Begar is a comedy among her talents greatly superior to "Waverly Wimpy" in which she excelled last season. With a wise and tunefulness that is refreshing.

Miss Edwards' wit is evident in the regulars to go first and then depend on their recommendation to attend when a return date is given. With few exceptions, this has been the case with higher class productions brought to the Colonial by Manager Singe.

EVOLUTION OF THE COKE CAR

The evolution of the coke car is fast, restful. It has grown in size with the growth in the trade and the expansion of the coke market.

When the region was young, shipments comparatively small, the coke car averaged from 12 to 15 tons capacity. The latter average held good for many years. With the advent of steel car capacity grew until the trade now employs cars of over 50 tons capacity.

These large cars have contributed in a great measure to the reduced supply which frequently embarks in the market. In addition to the less number of cars used to transport the product. One of the big cars takes the product of 12 or 15 men whereas formerly it required from two to three times as many men.

Car shortages arise principally from the inability of the railroads to keep up a prompt movement. The smaller the number of cars required to be used the greater the better the market. On the whole the big cars are a decided advantage to the coke trade.

A South Side resident complained that the gas was bad. She said she knew it was spoiled because it smelled bad. The gas company got a dose of its own hot air in this case.

The mill question has become well out at Scottsdale and the authorities have determined to make a regular inspection not only of the fleet of blue birds but also of the cows with a view to determining whether they are healthy or not. We will talk to the leading gen era lion.

It is not often that people are any too fond of trees. The Connellsville millmen have, however, a strong aversion to the trees with a view to determining whether they are healthy or not. We will talk to the leading gen era lion.

The Interstate Commerce Commission has dug up a soft coal to be com bined. The vein was cut out and has been visible to the trade's market for many seasons.

John Mitchell will visit the Connells ville region when conditions are more favorable. Labor suddenly organizing with it has no grievances to redress. The coke workers must be very well satisfied with their efforts, for seven or eight years during a period of nine years, yet have failed to make my visible impression. It is hoped that the region will continue peaceful and prosperous.

The Indepedent has the birds combining been in the news, the birds coming up but it now looks as if the birds were ready for the market. It is probable the former efforts had too much water and not enough sand in the composition.

Senator Davis in his recent issue with Senator Knob in the news, the bill before the House where the Pine Boy takes a fall out of the Texas Steel.

Beverly of Graustark

GEORGE BARR

Author of "Graustark".

Mead and Company.

Teachers seemed pointed on their backs as they rode ahead of her. The big officer was ever polite and slow, but she was ready to distract him on the slightest excuse. These men could not help knowing that she was rich and it was reasonable for them to suspect that she carried money and jewels with her. In her mind's eye she could picture these troopers riding long hours and boxes in some dark pass and then were other boxes that almost perched on her when she allowed herself to think of them.

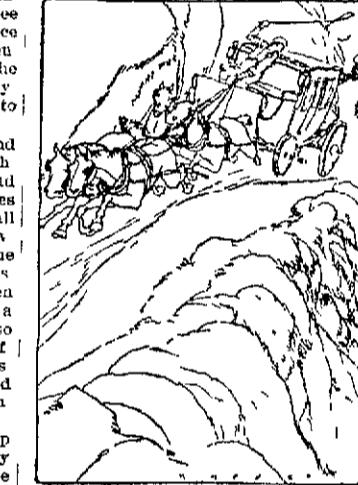

He and those the travelers passed by did not where dwelt no nation and mountains, and at long intervals a solitary hut picturing a horseman stood aside and gave them the road. As the coach passed deeper into the gorge signs of human life and activity became few. The sun could not send his light into this shadowy tomb of granite. The rattle of the wheels and the clatter of the hoofs sounded like a constant crash of thunder in the ear, and when she allowed herself to think of them.

There was an unmistakable tremor in her voice when she at last found heart to ask the officer where they were to spend the night. It was full past noon and Aunt Fanny had suggested spending the lunch baskets. One of the guides was called back the leader being absent. He dared not go back, he must go on.

At the end of half an hour the officer returned. A! I hope you from his return. It is useless. I can only tell you that we are going on with the summit. We are lost without them. I do not know what to do. We cannot go back. I do not know the way and the danger is great. At midday there comes the Coon-sacke are going back.

As he spoke the sulky mutineers were riding slowly toward the coach. Beverly had his pistol on the high pommel of the saddle. Their faces were ugly look. As they passed the officer out of their pointing ahead of him with his sword shouted savagely:

His only thought was to get away

"Be still, Aunt Fanny!" commanded Beverly with a flat show of courage. "You must be brave. Don't you see we can't turn back? It's just as dangerous to turn back as to go on. If we turn back, no one but us will be afraid; they'll not let us don't you see and men never harm women when they respect."

Loud grunted Aunt Fanny with exasperated noise.

"Well, they never do," maintained Beverly who was not at all sure about it. "And they look like real old men—honest men, even though they have such awful whiskers."

"Day, do you just wish Ah evet did see, except I want t' jump?"

"Sh! Don't let them hear you when Beverly.

In spite of her terror and perplexity she was compelled to smile. "Our advance guard has met a party of robbers from Yekaterinburg. They insist that you—the true returning hero—a second visit to St. Petersburg where you went to plead for assistance from the tsar."

Beverly faltered in action because it was too terrible to believe. She was actually ludicrous. She laughed heartily. How perfectly absurd!

I am well aware that you are not the true returning hero, but what can I do? The men you believe me. They swear they have been captured and are panic stricken over the situation. The tsar sent me to the Arctic and I am fully aware of the horrors of the north through these wilds and starting to later opt her. A large detachment of soldiers is already across the Graustark frontier. It is only a question of time before the robbers will be upon them. I have told them that their beautiful tsar is dead, the princess is but a woman in her girlhood, and that there is no safety about the Arctic and escort to Moscow. The Arctic is safe and they feel that that heads are on the line, while as for the Cossacks, not only dire threats of the awful is of the white bear when he finds them dissolved his commands will move them.

Speak to your men once more and promise them the prices of gold

NOW FOR THE FINAL EASTER PREPARATIONS

W.M. Co.

S FURNISHERS of stylish apparel we are prepared to serve you intelligently and satisfactorily. To be served satisfactorily at Easter time is of great importance to those who have planned to join the great yearly style parade. In selecting your Easter gown, hat or wrap you want to feel of all times of the year, that your selection will be, not only exclusive but possess several distinguishing style attributes that will be instantly recognized as the ear marks of good taste.

A great majority of ready-to-wear garments—millinery too, for that matter—proclaim the source of their origin; there's a lack of finished excellence, elegance and workmanship that always suggests to the wearer deficiencies that make one ill at ease.

Whatever you select here you have the satisfaction of knowing it's right in style, superior in finish, and equal to any made to measure apparel.

While these thoughts are a source of satisfaction, there's another strong buying incentive that will appeal to you. The Wright-Metzler Company garments cost no more and often less than inferior productions elsewhere.

Don't put off buying until the last day for although errors are not likely to occur owing to our perfect organization. It is far more satisfactory to us and to you that you should make your selections as early as possible.

WRIGHT-METZLER COMPANY

Wright-Metzler Co., Footwear Critically Correct For Easter

There has been many a man and woman remarked to themselves within the past week: "I'll have to get a pair of shoes by Easter."

We wonder if these people thought further, if they considered that the shoe they contemplate buying within the present week could either "make" or "mar" the pleasure of Easter for them. If they did not consider this, it is nevertheless true; for if they should get a shoe made over an incorrectly shaped last, or if through the fact that the store they patronized was not equipped with the exact width they required and sold them a shoe too narrow or too wide, or if some kind friend should inform them that the style was incorrect and for many other reasons as potent. It would tend to dampen the exultant feeling; that seems to permeate a person when they are sure that their attire is correct in every detail.

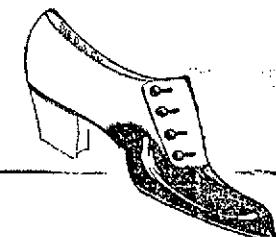

The growth of our shoe business is entirely due to the following facts:

- 1st.—Close and critical buying which results in our selling supremacy.
- 2nd.—Our careful selection of leathers which results in the long life of our shoes.
- 3rd.—Our ever watchful and vigilant care as to correctness in every detail of style and workmanship.
- 4th.—That we positively carry over no shoes from one season to another.
- 5th.—We buy direct from manufacturers saving you a large percentage.

The very bulk of our shoe business testifies to the absolute truth of these five statements which form a quintet of the strongest buying incentives possible to give.

Our shoe section offers every style in every width, every size and made in every shape that the ultra-fashionable world demands.

- A Man can buy shoes in lace, button or blucher from $1.00 to $5.00
A Woman can buy shoes in lace, button or blucher from $1.25 to $5.00
A Child can buy shoes in lace, button or blucher from 25c to $2.50

A Profusion of Easter Novelties

Our basement store is full of Easter favors and new and novel things for Easter entertainment. The hostess who expects to entertain during the Easter season would be saved a great deal of worry by a visit to this Easter store. Then, the unrivaled collection of chicks, rabbits, eggs, baskets and the like are couriers of joy to the children and cause our big basement to take on almost a Christmas air with its abundance of child-life attracted hither by the wealth of Easter toys that are so a lure to childhood. Price range is satisfyingly and broad enough to adapt itself to almost any purse.

Chicks 1c to 25c
Rabbits 5c to $2.50
Easter Eggs 5c to 15c
Easter Bells 5c and 10c

A Wonderful Collection of Women's Waists

Again and again we are told by customers that this showing of women's waists surpasses any they have ever before seen in this city.

This lavish variety includes all the different sorts of waists, taffeta silk, chiffon and China silk, the crepe de chine, then a wonderful stock of lace waists, silk lace-l. A collection of lingerie waists that is unequalled in the entire coke region and an almost unlimited variety of the practical waists for every day wear. Perhaps the largest immediate demand is for the beautiful silk waists for Easter wear. These we show at prices ranging from

$2.50 to $10.00

The Rustle of Silk Skirts Next Sunday

The result of a crisp new silk novelty is not important as the excitement of the movement it creates. The swirl of the silk petticoat is only apparent in good silk.

We have prepared for the Easter demand and are able to quote nothing, except what is mentioned above.

$5.00 to $15.00
in every modish shade.

Have You Forgotten Any of These?

If you have, it behoves you to make your selection at once. The heavy demand upon these stocks are lessening the choice every hour and you'll have more time to choose if you come at once. The last minute shopping is unsatisfactory and oft times coupled with disappointment.

Your Easter Suit and Overcoat Is Ready to Put On

Reasons for the Pre-eminence of Wright Metzler Co., Clothing

Those familiar with clothing trade facts recognize as a masterful accomplishment the tremendous growth of the Wright-Metzler Company clothing business during the past two years. Men do not pass by several good clothing stores and come up to our second floor without a cause.

Strong, decisive, positive causes exist; reasons that preclude any peradventure. They are best known by and frequently the despair of our strongest competitors.

There are always special features, extra handwork at some points, inside staying done with higher grade interlining so that permanent shapeliness secured without the unpleasant stiffness of cheap starchy linings. Of course, this particular betterness is most fully proven by the good wear that Wright-Metzler garments always give, but it is self-evident in the new suits too. The shape, finish, the very "feel" of them, tell of the more careful, more skilled workmanship.

Chiefest Point of All

With all this careful selection, this unusual workmanship, this exceptional style and character, Wright-Metzler Company clothing is marked at the most popular prices.

Here are the smartest, handsomest clothes that a man can desire; here is clothing at the lowest prices that any careful man would risk paying, and he can be certain of their quality and the good service they will render him.

That is why this clothing business has grown so splendidly, that is why no man knows how much he overpays for his clothing, until he knows all about Wright-Metzler Company clothing.

You are seeking an Easter suit or overcoat today. Your interest as well as ours invites you here.
